

METHAMPHETAMINE INITIATIVE COMPARISONS – FEDERAL AND WISCONSIN
SUBJECT	FEDERAL LAW CMEA 2006	STATE LAW 2005 WI ACT 14& 262	COMMENTS
Medications Included	All dosage forms containing the chemical ephedrine, pseudoephedrine, or phenylpropanolamine	All dosage forms containing ephedrine or pseudoephedrine product (except liquid and gel-caps)	Phenylpropanolamine is only available by Rx for veterinary use
Class	Scheduled listed chemical products (SLCP)	C-V controlled substance	Federal – All OTCs State – All OTCs and Rx products
Storage	*Behind Rx counter *Locked cabinet	Sold at retail by RPh or under direction of RPh
Logbook	Yes, written or electronic *Maintain for 2 years from the date the entry was made	*Yes, written or electronic *Maintain for at least 2 years	Federal law requires a bound logbook
Logbook requirements of pharmacy	*Name of Product *Quantity Sold *Verify Photo ID *Verify Date and Time Entries by Purchaser	*Name and Address of Purchaser *Name and Quantity of product sold *Pharmacist signs	Federally, mail order must confirm identity of purchaser
Logbook requirements of purchaser	* Enter name and address *Record date and time of sale *Signs log book * Present valid State or Federal photo ID [#]	*Must be at least 18 years of age *Photo ID card presented *Purchaser signs	No requirements federally if purchasing pseudoephedrine 60 mg or less ([#] see Verification of Photo ID)
Logbook information, shared	*Comply with law *Product recall *Copy, view or turn over completely
Logbook information, access	Shown only to local, state and federal law enforcement official(s)	*Pharmacist *Law enforcement officer who requests records	Federal law allows logbook to be copied, inspected, or turned over entirely to law enforcement
Quantities sold at retail	* Max 3.6 grams of chemical/day/customer * Max 9 grams of chemical/30 days/customer	Max 7.5 grams product/30 days/person	State law requires product container to bear name and address of retailer
Exceptions to law		No limit if quantity purchased is authorized by a physician, dentist or veterinarian (Rx)
Miscellaneous	Self-certification of employee training to Attorney General		Non-liquid forms of PSE must be sold in blister (or unit-dose) packaging, max 2 units/blister
Provided as a courtesy to our members by the Pharmacy Society of Wisconsin (02/07)			